Relevant Sessions by Industry Leaders!

This year's seminar addresses many issues impacting long-term care facilities.

About the Sessions & Presenters

PDPM: Unveiling the Administrator's Key Role in Mastering PDPM Success

In this session, the learner will examine the requirements of PDPM and explore the role of the administrator in assuring compliance.

Presenter: Tracy Montag, BSN, RN, RAC-MT, is a manager in RKL's nationally recognized Senior Living Services Consulting Group with over 30 years of clinical experience in long-term care. Tracy has extensive expertise with the RAI process and has served as an independent contractor for CMS.

Clockwork Compliance: Navigating Payroll-Based Journal Submissions and Audits

Administrators continue to struggle with the requirements of the payroll-based journal. This session will address the submission process and provide the attendees with practical information about the audit process.

Presenter: Stephanie S. Kessler, RAC-CT, CHP, is a Partner in RKL's nationally recognized Senior Living Services Consulting Group.

Navigating Medical Marijuana in the Workplace

Employers are facing increased challenges with keeping residents and staff safe in the era of medical and recreational use of marijuana. While Pennsylvania's Medical Marijuana Act became effective in 2016, there remains a number of issues that have not been resolved. Learn how to minimize your facility's risk through tips and best practices.

Presenter: Lisa L. Garrett, Esquire, is a Shareholder at Dentons Cohen & Grigsby, P.C. in the firm's Employment and Labor and Employment Litigation groups. She is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and Florida and serves clients out of the firm's Pittsburgh and Naples offices.
